THE 15TH ANNUAL ARCHER

FILM FESTIVAL

ARCHER FILM FESTIVAL

EMPOWERING YOUNG FILMMAKERS

The Archer Film Festival is dedicated to empowering female filmmakers and amplifying the voices of those often overlooked in the industry.

We aim to advance the art form by showcasing work from high school students whose perspectives are rarely seen or heard.

We celebrate films where women are a central creative voice, whether behind the camera or in front. Every year, more than 300 submissions are received from around the globe.

The festival is student-organized and student-led. It features an industry professional keynote and a screening of selected films.

The Archer Film Festival is a place for young filmmakers of diverse backgrounds to showcase their creative voices. The festival is a celebration of underrepresented stories, and our goal is to establish a true multicultural festival experience represented by a young global film community.
